INTERNATIONAL SOCCER MATCH ON JULY 31 IN BALTIMORE NOW INCLUDES EUROPEAN CHAMPION INTER MILAN

Club Completes Hat-Trick by Capturing UEFA Title

Baltimore, Md. – The international soccer match set for Baltimore this summer will now feature the Union of European Football Associations (UEFA) Champion, Internazionale Milano.

Commonly known as Inter Milan, the 2010 Italia Serie A Champion and Coppa Italia winner defeated FC Bayern Munich 2-0 today in the Champions League Final, the culmination of Europe's most prestigious annual club soccer competition. Inter Milan will face Manchester City, a member of England's elite Barclays Premier League, at M&T Bank Stadium on Saturday, July 31 at 8 p.m. EST.

Forward Diego Milito scored both goals as Inter Milan ended a 45-year drought to claim the Champions League final in Madrid. The Argentinean's goals came in the 34th and 70th minutes, helping Inter Milan become the first Italian team to win their domestic league, domestic cup and the European championship.

The victory marks the third time in history that Inter Milan has won the trophy (1964 and 1965) and earns club manager Jose Mourinho a position as only the third manager to win the European Cup with two different clubs.

The match between Manchester City and Inter Milan will mark the second consecutive year in which teams from two of Europe's top soccer leagues will compete against one another in Baltimore. In July 2009, over 70,000 fans filled M&T Bank Stadium for the international soccer game between A.C. Milan and Chelsea.

Tickets for the July 31 match between Manchester City and Inter Milan will go on sale on Wednesday, May 26 at 10 a.m. EST and range in price from $25 to $115 ($115 Club Level and lower midfield includes practice session with teams on July 30; $70 lower sideline, $50 lower corner/lower goal; $38 upper sideline; upper end goal $25). Tickets may be purchased by calling 410.261.RAVE (7283) or visiting www.BaltimoreRavens.com.
