

World Soccer Festival set for Patriot Plaza in Towson

Posted 6/09/10

As World Cup soccer gets under way this week in South Africa, Towson will host an outdoor Baltimore County World Soccer Festival in Patriot Plaza, 401 Bosley Ave., on Saturday from 7 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The festival is sponsored by the Towson Chamber of Commerce and WNST-AM.

Attendees can watch World Cup matches on a 9-by-12-foot screen in the plaza and also partake of food, beverages, beer and wine and shopping. There will be soccer-related events for kids.

Representatives of the Baltimore Blast, D.C. United, Crystal Palace, the Baltimore Bays and others groups will be on hand, including local recreation councils and youth soccer groups.

County Executive Jim Smith will address the gathering at 2 p.m., prior to the World Cup match between the United States and England. The event will be held rain or shine. For details, call 443-277-2600 or go to www.baltimoresoccerfestival.com.
